BULGARS DRIVE ROMANIAN ARMY BACK TO RIVER

Sofia Says Invasion Ends Disastrously.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The bold invasion of Bulgaria by Rumanian troops which crossed the Danube near Rahovo in the rear of the main battle line in Dobrudja, has ended most disastrously for the invaders, according to Sofia, their force being scattered and virtually wiped out.

To combat the Rumanians, who apparently were from 12,000 to 16,000 strong, but declared to be without artillery, the Bulgarians sent troops from Rusechuk and Turtukai, on each side of the point of crossing.

Sofia Reports Repulse. Regarding the operations along the Dobrudja front south of the Tchernavoda-Constanza railway, the current Sofia statement reports the repulse of all Russian and Rumanian attempts to advance. Bucharest has claimed substantial progress with these attacks near the center and toward the Black Sea coast and yesterday reported the capture of more than 1,000 prisoners and seven guns from Field Marshal von Mackensen's forces.

British troops yesterday morning captured the entire town of Venikou, a village in Greek Macedonia which lies two miles east of the Struma river, says the British official statement issued today. Scottish and Irish battalions especially distinguished themselves in the fighting for this position, the statement adds, and the Bulgarians are reported to have suffered heavy losses.

Russians Defeat Turks. Suddenly resuming their offensive in Turkish Armenia west of Trebizond, the Russians, with the co-operation of the fleet, have inflicted a severe defeat upon the Turks, moving forward along a wide front, the war office announced today. A fortified position in the Karaburnum region has been captured and great losses inflicted upon the Turks.

IT'S YOUR LIVER! YOU'RE BILIOUS, HEADACHY, SICK!

Don't stay constipated with breath bad, stomach sour or a cold.

Enjoy life! Live your liver and bowels to-night and feel fine.

Tonight sure! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Cascarabs from the drug store now? Eat one or two tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Cascarabs never grip or bother you all the next day like calomel, salts or pills. They act gently but thoroughly. Mothers should give cross, sick, bilious or feverish children a whole Cascarab any time. They are harmless and children love them. —Adv.

Fourteen Drivers Without Dimmers

Fourteen auto drivers appeared in municipal court this morning to answer complaints that they drove with glaring headlights. Most of them were stopped by police officers at Sixteenth street and Classen boulevard last night.

George Stiles, the florist, was a pioneer in the headlight dimming movement but he was in court. Chief Nichols testified that Stiles' headlights lacked two inches of complying with the law. The upper part of the lenses had been dimmed but not the lower.

Stiles was the first to change from the old searchlight way and said that before the ordinance was passed the police board had approved his lights. The law had outpaced him and the case was dismissed when he agreed to get new dimmers.

Half of the defendants were dismissed and the others fined from $1 to $5 and costs.

JEWISH PEOPLE WILL OBSERVE YOM KIPPUR

Day of Atonement To Be Celebrated Here With Special Services Among Local Jews. Special services at Temple B'Nai Israel tomorrow evening, with a special memorial service Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock will mark the celebration by Jewish people in Oklahoma City of Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement. At the first service Rabbi Joseph Blatt will conduct the ritual service, assisted by A. D. Englesman and G. A. Paul.

Stores in the city operated by Jews are expected to remain closed Saturday until 6 p. m. Yom Kippur begins tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock and continues twenty-four hours.

Yom Kippur is considered the most important event in the religious life of the Jewish people and is more strictly and generally observed than any of the other fast days in the Hebrew calendar. The celebration is characterized by a total abstention from all manner of labor or business for twenty-four hours during which it extends, only the most absolute works of necessity or charity being permitted. For the same period the observant Jew does not partake of food or drink of any kind, the strictest manner of fasting being enjoined by him. None of the orthodox section of the Jewish people consider themselves exempt from this fast, except the ill, nursing mothers, children and the very aged, and there are not many of the latter who avail themselves of this exemption.

The fasting begins at sunset tomorrow evening and the fast is not broken until after the close of services in the synagogues at sunset Saturday.

Villa Shoots Down Man Who Pleaded for Young Women

EL PASO, Oct. 5.—Among the civilians murdered by Villa on entering Cusihuiriachic, according to an eye witness of the fight who arrived here today, was Caesar Sala, an Italian by birth, but a naturalized citizen of Mexico, who was the only person of foreign origin to escape from Santa Ysabel during the massacre there.

Sala, who had a store in Cusihuiriachic, the refugee said, went to Villa to urge him to prevent the assault of young women by the bandits, then terrorizing the town. Villa's answer to Sala's pleadings was a bullet.

Sala escaped death at Santa Ysabel through being struck senseless by the butt of a revolver by Pablo Lopez.

The STROUD PIANOLA

Superior to all Players of other make regardless of price

The Stroud Pianola provides you with all the power of musical expression—all the varied musical effects which the skilled pianist's talented fingers can attain.

But the Pianola does not stop at endowing you with a technique that is equal to all the difficulties of the most tremendous musical compositions ever written for the piano, it gives you also simple, accurate guidance that enables you to employ your new found power with a subtle artistry that few amateur musicians ever develop.

Even though you have never played any instrument, the Metrostyle, a device exclusive with the Pianola, is a clear and easily followed path to perfect interpretation. It is the master's promptings and teachings simplified so you may understand without tedious study.

The beautiful tone shading—the power of varied emphasis which gives the Pianola touch such a startling semblance to that of human fingers, is due to another of the exclusive Pianola devices—the Themedist.

Many other important features and improvements have given the Pianola a superiority over every other instrument of the player type, that is recognized and endorsed by practically every great musician of the present generation.

Yet the Stroud is not an expensive instrument.

It is placed in your home $25 by a cash payment of only
